Lionettes Compile History

A suggestion made Monday by Lionette Helen McKay to compile a history of early times in the district, mushroomed into what could be a very large but worthwhile project.

Twenty-five Vulcan Lionettes and six guests met at the Vulcan Hotel banquet room on September 2 for a sumptuous dinner before delving into the heavy business agenda.

Following the reading of the minutes of the last meetings as well as the financial report by secretary, Bonnie Hill, a report on the baseball pool cards was given by Bea Richardson. She urged the members to complete their cards as soon as possible to enable Alice Scales and herself to have the scores posted.

The outstanding assistance rendered by the club's honorary member, Charlie Fulton was noted and it was felt that recognition of such service was in order.

The committees for Senior Citizens' night which is to be held on Wednesday, Oct. 27 were named by president Rose Munro and a lengthy discussion followed regarding the annual event. Lionette Grace Dahl again volunteered to head the transportation committee and anyone requiring a ride to the hall is requested to contact Mrs. Dahl.

Helen McKay's suggestion for each member to seek out as many incidents of early history as possible was considered a good one and work on such a project will begin immediately. Oldtimers of the district are asked to relate, in story form if possible, any noteworthy incident of the early days to prevent the valuable past from being lost to oblivion. Pictures would be especially welcome. The success of this project depends entirely on the response of the district's senior citizens.

Bea Richardson also made mention of the coming by-law approval regarding the centennial project to be voted on October 13. An affirmative vote could mean a great deal to the future of senior citizens' nights and all members were urged to vote.

Mrs. Ann Green, a chaperone to the 24 county students who traveled to Churchill in August, entertained the group with her outstanding selection of colored slides along with a most knowledgeable commentary. Each picture related a story and proved a most exciting travelogue with periodic flares of humor. She was thanked most profusely by the appreciative gathering for providing such excellent entertainment.

WHERE THE MONEY GOES.

The Vulcan Kinsmen Club, one of many clubs and organizations which have pledged assistance to the Vulcan District Recreation Society last week presented a cheque for $1,000 towards the proposed new building. A replica of the cheque is shown above with Pat Walker, president of the recreation group and Kinsmen president Almond Hyslip seated. Surrounding them are Kinsmen Ray Baggio, treasurer, Bob Petrosky, vice-president, and Lavern Scott, secretary. It was during the presidency of Dick Warren that the club agreed to raise money in support of the recreation building fund. Local ratepayers will have their chance to pledge or reject their support on Oct. 13 when the plebiscite for a town loan will be voted on.

N. Bucholtz Chairman

Scout-Guide Committee Reorganized For Season

Norman Bucholtz was named chairman of the Vulcan Scout-Guide Group Committee at a recent meeting held to elect officers and reorganize for the coming season. Other officers are Evan Munro, secretary-treasurer; Joe Main, first vice-president; Mrs. Lil Klippert, second vice-president.

Directors named include Frank Wythe, Earl Galloway, Richard Hammer, Norman Lebsack, Glen Graham, Mrs. Audrey Warren, Mrs. Mabel Rea and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Sokvitne.

James Shearer will be Scoutmaster here with Queen Scout Larry Mumby as his assistant. Mr. Shearer, who has been a Queen Scout and Rover Scout, was an assistant Scoutmaster in Calgary prior to moving to Vulcan.

Glen Graham, with Alan McAskill as his assistant, will lead one Cub pack while Jerry Wylie with assistants Helen Pearson and Ruth Richardson will be in charge of the other pack.

Two Brownie Packs are organized. Brown Owl Wynn Lethby assisted by Tawny Owls Dale Market and Lorraine Jacober meet on Thursday evenings, while the Tuesday afternoon pack is led by Brown Owl Helen Pearson assisted by Tawny Owl, Marjorie Markert.

Captain Kay Grant and Lieutenant Marjorie Middleton are conducting Guide meetings each Thursday afternoon.

An insurance salesman was getting nowhere in his efforts to sell a policy to a farmer.

"Look at it this way," he said finally. "How would your wife carry on if you should die?"

"Well," answered the farmer reasonably. "I don't reckon that's any concern of mine so long as she behaves herself while I'm still alive."

R. Williamson, Early Carmangay Resident Dies

An early resident of the Carmangay district, Ross Robertson Williamson of Madden, Alta. died September 17 at the age of 67.

Mr. Williamson's father, Charles R. Williamson, was homestead inspector for the district north of Lethbridge in the days when the Carmangay area underwent the transition from open range to homesteads and the family will be remembered by oldtimers of the area.

Ross Williamson moved from Carmangay in 1919 and since then had farmed in the Crossfield-Madden district. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Madge Craig of Madden, and four nephews.

Services were held at Crossfield and interment was in the Crossfield cemetery.

There were 19 members and eight guests present, four of the guests being members of the Kinsmen Club of Medicine Hat who travelled to Vulcan for this special occasion.

Preceding the regular meeting D.D.G. Geo. Renner gave a brief outline of the duties and obligations of each member on the new executive who are as follows: President, Almond Hyslip; past president, Dick Warren; vice-president, Bob Petrosky; treasurer, Ray Baggio; secretary, Lavern Scott; sgt.-at-arms, Ken Gatenby; bulletin editor, Larry Mitchell. Total of $15,200 . . .

Centennial Grants Split Among Six Communities

The County of Vulcan has waived its rights to centennial grants from the federal and provincial governments, amounting to $2.00 per capita on an estimated county population of 5,200 and will make this grant available to the town of Vulcan and villages of Carmangay, Champion, Arrowwood, Milo and Lomond to assist in centennial projects.

The federal-provincial centennial grant, amounting to a total of $10,400, has been allotted as follows:

Arrowwood $1,000, Carmangay $1,000, Champion $1,600, Lomond $1,200, Milo $1,200, Vulcan $4,400.

Terms of centennial grants require that to receive the $2.00 per capita federal-provincial grant, the municipality concerned must contribute $1.00 per capita from its own funds. The County's share of the total grant of $3.00 per capita is $5,200 and this has been allotted as follows:

Arrowwood $500, Carmangay $500, Champion $800, Lomond $600, Milo $600, Vulcan $1,700. This leaves $500, which has been allotted as follows as a direct grant to communities in the county that do not have centennial projects: Mossleigh Community Hall $200, Brant Community Hall $200, Heronston Community Hall $100.

Total grants being received by the villages and town through the County of Vulcan therefore amount to: Arrowwood $1,500, Carmangay $1,500, Champion $2,400, Lomond $1,800, Milo $1,800 and Vulcan $6,100.

Amounts of the county centennial grants to each community was arrived at by estimating the farm based on population and also population adjacent to each centre, amounting to $3.00 per capita, contributed equally at $1.00 per capita by the federal government, the provincial government and the village or town.

In addition to these grants through the County for centennial projects, the villages and town will have their own centennial grants, village or town.

The Best Is Yet To Come

Fish stories come and fish stories go and some of them expand with each mile and day away from the scene of action. However this one is no hallucination according to Howie and Mildred Marshman, part of the Vulcan establishment which summers at the Husky trailer camp at the Highway junction on the Kananaskis road.

Some time late this summer, it seems a nephew of Husky station operator Elsie Snider took a jaunt up the Highway several miles north somewhere near the point where Mist Creek runs in and dropped his minnow-baited line in the stream. He was suddenly shocked to tie in with the biggest fish his line had probably ever tangled with and he was holding his own until the line got into trees or underbrush and the fish got away.

Our frenzied fisherman knew no one would believe his experience so he went back promptly next morning and caught this same whopper again.

Back at the Husky camp he popped eyeballs with 24 1/2 inches of Dolly Varden trout weighing five and a half pounds and invited viewers to the deep freeze in which was a nineteen-inch and assorted smaller samples. Howie almost fainted.

This from water which in spots is hardly deep enough to float such fish.

Another shocker happened in waters away from this area during the summer when a fisherman latched on to a small but decent trout in a deep pool at the foot of some rapids. While playing his catch there suddenly came up from the depths a gaping mouth attached to a long fish body which devoured his trout and dove for the bottom bending his rod into a U shape. The line came loose and the hook was almost straight.

Unfortunately this angler had only his nine-year-old son as a witness so he keeps this one pretty well to himself cause kids can be bought off. But he still goes to sleep at nights dreaming of a way to rig up a moving picture camera to the end of a fish pole.

C. G. Ness New Mayor

Seven Candidates For 3 Town Council Vacancies

C. G. Ness, hardware merchant and nine-year veteran of the Vulcan town council, has been elected by acclamation as mayor of Vulcan and M. R. Morrison, former mayor was elected by acclamation as the town's representative on the board of the Vulcan Municipal Hospital. Mr. Morrison, who had resigned as mayor because of ill health, had agreed to stand for re-election to the hospital board.

operator; and Albert Schmolke, hotel proprietor.

Polling for the election of three councillors will take place at the Town Office on Wednesday, Oct. 13, from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. At the same time and place votes of the proprietary electors will be taken on By-law 479.

Entitled to vote in the election of councillors are (a) property owners and those subject to business tax, and (b) those who have been residents of the town for a period of not less than 12 months prior to the election (this category includes renters and other non-property owners). All voters must be 21 years of age or over and non-property owners must be either Canadian citizens or British subjects.

Only ratepayers can vote on By-law 479, which is to approve or disapprove the borrowing of $37,000 for construction of a recreation centre.

Liberals Name Bill Matheson Of Lethbridge

Liberal candidate for Macleod constituency in the forthcoming federal election is Williams R. (Bill) Matheson of Lethbridge.

At the Liberal nominating convention held at Nanton last Friday, his only opponent was Arthur W. Ulrich of Champion. The convention was attended by about 70 people.

A radio newscaster and television weatherman, Mr. Matheson was making his second bid for nomination, having been defeated at the Lethbridge Liberal nominating convention September 9 by Mayor Frank Sherring of Lethbridge. Mr. Matheson is the third candidate to be named in the Macleod riding. Others already nominated are incumbent M.P. Lawrence E. Kindt of Nanton, Progressive Conservative, and Mayor Ernie Patterson of Claresholm, Social Credit. The NDP nominating convention is to be held at Fort Macleod this week.

Golfers Dodging Snowballs To Complete Play

Get acquainted Day at the Vulcan Golf Club on Sunday was washed out by six inches of snow as far as golf participation was concerned. However the excellent supper put on by the ladies of the golf club was a huge success and 60 to 70 members and guests enjoyed every morsel of it.

It may be Thanksgiving Day before the golfers see the green grass again (heaven forbid) but they are looking forward with enthusiasm to the Turkey dinner the (Continued on Page 7)

INDIAN SUMMER. Last Friday the temperature stood at 70 degrees, not a frozen leaf stirred and farmers were set to go back to their combines again over the weekend. Saturday they awoke to the above sight in the fields. By mid-afternoon it was just like a winter blizzard as four to six inches of snow blanketed the ground. Since then most of it has melted and a warming trend is predicted.

Parade To Show Varied Use Of Centre

In an effort to point up the use which the youth of Vulcan and district could make of the facilities of the proposed community recreation centre a parade of youngsters will be held Saturday, Oct. 9, at 1:30 p.m.

These folk are asked to design and construct slogans or banners depicting their feelings towards this project. Led by members of the Vulcan County Band they will parade through town from the starting point at the Armouries block and while judging is taking place anyone entering the contest will be given a pass for a free show at the Vulcan Theatre.

As part of the first phase in an extensive recreation complex the Vulcan District Recreation Society has hopes of erecting a 125' x 250' building with the front part to receive first consideration. A part of this early project is the basement which is earmarked as headquarters for Scout, Guide and other youth groups.

The main and second floors will be designed for banquet and auditorium use and for many other recreational purposes.

The recreation group has raised about $23,000 in the past three years and this amount plus a loan of approximately $7,000 has gone towards purchase of the former Meadowlark curling rink at Calgary, its dismantling and hauling to Vulcan.

A month ago the society turned to Vulcan town council for financial assistance on the project. Council voted to authorize a loan of $37,000 as requested but before this can be granted, ratepayers must pass final judgement by way of a plebiscite vote to be held in conjunction with town elections on Wednesday, Oct. 13.

Pinks are being seen through the winter months. Burgundy is the new color this year, with hot pink, deep wine, mauve and cranberry lending appearance again. Jungle greens ranging from moss, emerald, to chartreuse and avocado are also popular.

Greys are also among the popular colors with emphasis on the medium to dark tones.

Lovely fabrics are available with a trend toward openweaves and handcrafted qualities in evidence. Bulky wool tweeds, airy wool knits, wool laces and crocheted effects are popular. Some are bonded to a jersey lining fabric for easier sewing.

The ruthless slaughter of the buffalo in Canada's early west is depicted in this scene from the film "Age of the Buffalo." This 15-minute color film, produced by the National Film Board was first released to theatres and is now available for community and school use. Using the dramatic paintings of Frederick Remington, and scenes of present-day buffalo herds, the film provides a vivid picture of the buffalo hunt as it was practiced by the Indians who depended on this mighty animal for their livelihood. It also demonstrates the tragedy of the near total destruction of the buffalo by white hunters.

VACCINATION AGE LIMIT CHANGES

Don't forget that the official age for calfhood vaccinations, under the Canada Brucellosis program, is now 4 to 9 months instead of 4 to 11 months. Calves vaccinated after 9 months of age will not be considered vaccinated when blood test results are interpreted.

Dr. W. P. Brisbane, Supervisor of Brucellosis Control with the Alberta Veterinary Services Branch, reports that the lowering of the upper vaccination age was adopted after a joint meeting of Federal and Provincial governments and will meet the United States import regulations.

Dr. Brisbane does not think that the new age limit will pose a serious problem for cattlemen because the majority of spring calves should be vaccinated by the end of December which will be under the upper age limit of 270 days. In some areas, however, more emphasis will have to be put on spring vaccination programs to see that all heifers are vaccinated within the proper age range.

Alberta cattlemen are to be commended, says Dr. Brisbane, for their co-operation and efforts towards control and eradication of brucellosis in this province. Even with blood testing and vaccination, it remains the responsibility of individual cattle owners to guard against brucellosis gaining a foothold in their herds.

Dr. Brisbane reports that the Brucellosis Restricted Area Plan with its compulsory vaccination of all heifer calves has played an important role in reducing the incidence of brucellosis in Alberta. Recent figures show approximately 7,000 reactors uncovered by the Federal Health of Animals Branch out to 2,000,000 cattle tested in 41 municipalities. This works out to roughly .35 per cent reactors in Alberta compared to the 1.5 per cent average across Canada. Federal figures also show that only 8.9 per cent of the Alberta herds tested were infected.

Dr. Brisbane points out that cattle exports to the United States are an important part of the Canadian cattle industry which must be retained by meeting American import regulations. With continued calfhood vaccination within the prescribed age limit of 4 to 9 months, Alberta cattle will be eligible for export to U.S. feedlots and markets whenever the price structure is to our advantage.

The Canada Pension Plan and its benefits

Here is what the Canada Pension Plan will do for people like Robert Martin, a 55-year-old skilled tradesman who earns $100 a week ($5,200 a year).

If Robert works full time until age 65 he can look forward to a monthly retirement income of $104.17 from the Canada Pension Plan and $75 from Old Age Security—a total of $179.17 a month. When his wife, who is two years younger than Robert, receives her Old Age Security pension, the Martins' monthly income will rise to $254.17.

If Robert becomes disabled at age 60, having contributed for five years, he will get a disability pension of $103.13 a month until he reaches 65 when his retirement and Old Age Security pensions begin.

If Robert dies after contributing for three years, his wife will receive a widow's pension of $64.06 a month until age 65. From then on her widow's pension will become $62.50 and she will also receive the $75 Old Age Security pension—a total of $137.50 a month. At the time of Robert's death, Mrs. Martin will also be paid a lump sum of $500.

All benefits under the Plan will maintain their value. The actual benefits payable will probably be higher than those given here since benefits will be adjusted to meet changes in living costs and in wage levels before they are paid and changes in living costs after they become payable.

What will the Plan cost you?

If you, like Robert, are employed and have earnings of $5,200 spread evenly over the year, you will, commencing in January, pay at the rate of $1.59 a week until your contributions for the year amount to $79.20. Your employer will pay the same amount.

This advertisement is one of a series which relates some of the important benefits of the Canada Pension Plan to individual circumstances.

Issued by authority of the Minister of National Health and Welfare,
Canada,
The Honourable Judy LaMarsh.

Centennial Project

Now officially designated as Vulcan's centennial project, the Recreation Centre can become a reality if sufficient support and interest is shown by the town ratepayers through approval of By-law 479, which authorizes the town to borrow $37,000 for construction of the 250 x 125 ft. cinder block building.

Beams, trusses, doors, lumber, etc., artificial ice plant and other recoverable parts of the former Meadowlark curling rink at Calgary have already been purchased by the Recreation Society at a cost of almost $30,000. New cost of these items, all of which can be used in the projected recreation centre here, would be two or three times the amount paid.

The value of such a recreation centre to the Vulcan community should be apparent even to those diehards who think that what was good enough recreation-wise 40 or 50 years ago is good enough today.

The need for such a centre, which will include banquet and meeting facilities, has been a topic of conversation for years. A "natural" for a centennial project, the recreation centre can receive a substantial boost through the additional financial help now available by means of the centennial grants which, through the town and the county, will total about $11,000.

Other towns in Alberta are designating recreation-civic centres as their centennial projects, recognizing the need for such centres in this day of vastly increased leisure time.

Claresholm is planning a $100,000 centre, using its centennial grants with the balance entirely financed by the town. Claresholm visualizes facilities to seat 500 people at a banquet or 1,000 at a meeting; basketball, volleyball and badminton courts; and a full basement for washrooms, Scout hall, etc.

St. Paul, with a population of 3,000 has already completed its main centennial project — a $200,000 recreation centre. St. Paul residents raised $100,000 through public subscription and then voted to borrow an additional $100,000 from the bank, to be paid by an additional levy of $1.00 a month on the water bills of about 800 householders and businesses. The plebiscite was approved by a large majority and now this livewire town is proceeding with no less than 25 other, smaller centennial projects.

St. Paul's centennial director says: "Centennial is like a spring housecleaning, when you get all those things done you should have done a long time ago. Take the recreation centre. We've needed that for a long time. We've needed an art club, better relations with the farmers, and a feeling both here and outside that the town is alive. I think we've got that now."

Vulcan is no different from other towns such as Claresholm and St. Paul. We have an opportunity now to go ahead with a major centennial project. This particular opportunity won't come again. Bickering and minor objections seem to be part of any project, but let's forget these and take a broader viewpoint. Vulcan needs a recreation centre. Let's approve the by-law and get the job done now.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, The Advocate

Dear Sir:

I just want to congratulate "Vulcan Resident" for the very fine and worthwhile letter appearing in last week's "Advocate". I heartily endorse everything that he mentions and would like to add a few remarks myself.

I also am a Vulcan resident and have property in the town, but homesteaded in the district in '06 and hauled in my crops after the town got started for many years, so consider I, with my family, have done our little bit in helping to build the fine town we now have here. But we don't want to stop now. We have a wonderfully prosperous district with fine roads in every direction and it only takes a short time to drive in from 15 to 20 miles around. We really need a Community Centre as outlined by the committee, for young and adult, men and women irrespective. I am too old now myself to expect much personal benefit, but it would (will?) be a fine thing for my grandchildren and others, so am glad to pay a few dollars extra on my taxes, considering it money well spent.

Will sign myself—
"Oldtimer Resident"

Heavy Snowfall Last Weekend

Harvest was just getting underway again last Friday in 70-above temperatures, with combining of oats and barley and swathings of wheat, when a cold front again moved in bringing a steady snowfall Saturday and Sunday and again halting all field operations.

From four to six inches of wet snow fell over the weekend and a week of good drying weather is needed before combining can again start. Skies were clear and sunny on Tuesday of this week. Good, dry weather is required for all of October to allow harvest to be completed.

In the Labor Day tournament at High River Vulcan was represented and Bud Haverty swung his way down to the finals where he was defeated by Don Tanner in the championship flight. According to the High River Times, "Haverty pulled off the tournament's most astonishing upset to gain his berth in the championship finals. Bud checked in with a fine one under par round to sideline club-mate Ray Wellman on the final hole. Wellman is a perennial threat at all tournaments in the foothills area and was one of the co-favorites here".

Local golf finals have Wellman and Watson paired off in the championship flight. Corporal Pete Thachik won the first flight while Swede Robertson and Larry Hagg will meet in the third flight.

W. I. Girls' Club Convention Held At Olds

One hundred and twenty-nine girls, 31 supervisors and guests from Alberta communities were in attendance at the 47th Annual provincial convention of the Alberta Women's Institute Girls' Club held Aug. 9 to 12 at the Olds Agricultural and Vocational College.

Under the direction of the Provincial Supervisor Mrs. Harry Richardson, Didsbury, and Assistant Provincial Supervisor, Mrs. Paul Hauser of Carstairs, the girls took as their theme "Anything worth doing is worth doing well."

This was carried out and practised in all phases of club work throughout the convention.

Chairman of the convention was Provincial Vice-president Lily Larter of Picture Butte, assisted by five directors, Nellie McLaughlin, Diane Zukowsky, Marion McDowell, Aleah Steeves and Linda Phillips.

A welcome was extended by Mr.

Birdsall, Principal of the college and during the week all the girls took part in classes consisting of nursing, cooking, deportment, sewing, art and crafts.

Special address to the girls was given by A.W.I. president Mrs. J. Beilish of Warspite. A formal tea was held at which the girls modelled clothes they had made during the year in a very well arranged fashion show with Chris Shunter as commentator.

An amateur program was held consisting of four minutes of entertainment by each of the clubs represented. Many skits, songs, dances and piano solos were enjoyed by those present.

Prizes were awarded to winners in competitions of public speaking, sports, handicraft, art and short stories.

The handicraft trophy was won by the Warspite Pathfinders club with 55 points. This club also won the efficiency trophy for the highest points over all the clubs with 88 points. Runner-up was Lethbridge Northern Busy Bees with 85 points.

Miss Lily Larter of the Lethbridge Northern Busy Bees, Iron Springs, was elected Provincial President of the A.W.I.G.C. with Joyce Underhay of the Lone Pine Oracles, Didsbury named vice-president. Directors are: district 1—Nellie McLaughlin, Kinuso; district 2—Diane Zukowsky, Warspite; district 3—Dorothy Hillaby, Ohaton; district 4—Aleah Steeves, Travers; district 5—Linda Phillips, Didsbury.

New provincial supervisor is Mrs. H. Hillaby, Ohaton and assistant is Mrs. E. Blades of Ohaton. Awards were given to ladies who had four years or more as supervisors of the groups.

At the banquet the toast and replies were followed by presentation of engraved silver trays to retiring supervisors Mrs. H. Richardson and Mrs. P. Hauser by vice-president Joyce Underhay in recognition of their service to the clubs during the past four years.

A donation of $10 was made towards a new project of organizing new clubs in the north part of the province.

A masquerade party, with everyone dressing as a song title, brought the successful convention to a close.

The Travers Little Ladies Club was represented at the convention and Aleah Steeves won second prize for her costume "Four Leaf Clover" in the single group. Marlon Clifford, Diane Foreman and Mary Elliot of the club won first prize in the group of three for representing the song title "The Lonely Bull". Darlene Marks and Arlene Stokes of the Armada Armadettes won third prize in the group of two representing the song "Hillbilly Heaven".

TOO GOOD
The toastmaster introduced the speaker with great fervor, stressing the public services he had rendered and eulogizing his ability and charm. Somewhat overwhelmed, the speaker faced the audience. "After such an introduction," he said disarmingly, "I can hardly wait to hear what I am going to say."

THE VULCAN DISTRICT RECREATION SOCIETY ASKS THAT

Before You Vote

(WEDNESDAY, OCT. 13, ON BYLAW 479)

CONSIDER THE FACTS

As is well known to Vulcan ratepayers the Vulcan District Recreation Society has a Centennial project under way which will see this area with a building which will be the start of a recreation complex. The Town of Vulcan has authorized a loan of $37,000 towards completion of a certain portion of this complex. This sum must be voted on during civic elections Oct. 13. Pertinent facts concerning the society's proposal appear below:

APPROX. COST OF PROPOSED BUILDING—

- Foundation, $6,800.
- Blocks include laying, $12,700 (consists of 17,000 blocks).
- Roof, $4,400.
- Rebuild ground floor, $14,000.
- Volunteer labor would reduce this cost considerably.

FINANCING—

- Estimated cost of Phase 1, $40,000 includes (NOTE) shell of entire building, including arena area which can be used with natural ice for the present.
- Completion of front portion of building, consisting of three levels, each 30' x 120'.
- In order to qualify for the Centennial grant the Town must guarantee funds for the reasonable completion of a portion of the building, thus By-law 479 re the borrowing of $37,000.
- This loan will be reduced by the Centennial grant, Town of Vulcan, approximately $4500 and County of Vulcan, approximately $6,100.
- This loan will be further reduced by Winter Works assistance, whereby the Federal and Provincial governments pay 75% of eligible labor which could amount to $1500 on the total project.
- Contributions which saw the Meadowlark Park curling rink dismantled and shipped to Vulcan (to June 30, 1965). Public Donations $13,892.40; Organizations $5,523.60, and Raffles $1,005.00.

OPERATION—

- Operated and supervised by adequate committee, elected or appointed.
- It is hoped eventually to acquire a recreation director, with a provincial grant of $1500 yearly available towards salary.
- Revenue to help cover operating expenses will be derived from admission charges and rental of facilities.
- The town is at present spending $1500 to $2000 yearly on present arena. If deficit is found in proposed complex this would be met by setting mill rate in the town and surrounding recreation area. One mill would average $5.00 per ratepayer per year.
- Funds derived from the recreation area would be administered by a committee appointed by council, and such funds allocated to qualified recreation organization.
- There is not to be any yearly family membership, as such, to govern use of the building. Memberships may eventually be available for such activities as skating. Season tickets have always been sold at the old arena and with new artificial ice a full season of the sport would be assured.
- For the present the arena portion will be usable with natural ice.
- Artificial ice may be installed under further Winter Works assistance.
- The Vulcan and District Recreation Society is going to keep active in fund raising projects.

Lundgren-Drummond Vows Exchanged

A very lovely double ring ceremony was solemnized in the Vulcan United Church on July 17 at 5 p.m. when Marjorie Lynn, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burnell Drummond exchanged vows with Lawrence Eric Lundgren, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhold Lundgren, all of Vulcan. Tony Pearce, close friend of the groom, officiated. The altar was decorated with lighted candles, and baskets of pink and white peonies. Satin bows with pink carnations marked the family pews.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, came down the aisle to the strains of Lohengren's Wedding March. She was lovely in a floor length gown of chiffon over taffeta with long lily point sleeves. The very full bouffant skirt was set off with tiers in the front while her train fell from mid-back. She wore a dainty crystal crown which held in place a bouffant silk illusion veil. Her bouquet was of white orchids.

Before the ceremony began, Mrs. Mary Hilz sang the Wedding Prayer and during the signing of the register, O Perfect Love, Bill Tompkins, friend of the bride, accompanied the soloist.

Miss Mary McInenly, maid of honour and the Misses Janet Drummond, Sharon Snow and Carol Fitzpatrick, sister and cousins respectively were the bridesmaids. They were all charming in identically styled sleeveless peau-de-soie frocks with matching shoes and white lace overcoats. They carried nosegays of pink and white carnations, while Carol, junior bridesmaid, carried a little basket of pink sweetheart roses.

Gary Lundgren, younger brother of the groom was best man. David Lundgren, brother and Wayne Erickson, friend of the groom, shared the ushering duties.

Mrs. Drummond chose for her daughter's wedding an aqua colored crepe sheath dress with a heavy lace bodice and matching picture hat. Her accessories were black with white gloves and her corsage was of Talisman roses. The groom's mother wore a pink crepe dress with matching hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of deep pink roses.

A wedding reception for 200 guests was held at the Vulcan

Armouries where pink and blue streamers with matching flowers and bell was the color theme. Candles and rose bowl of pink flowers centered the tables.

Marilyn McKay, Marjorie Lar-kins and Margo Snow, cousin of the bride, were in charge of the guest book while Calvin Snow, uncle of the bride acted as master of ceremonies. Carson McKay proposed a very lovely toast to the bride to which the groom responded. Gary Lundgren proposed the toast to the bridesmaids.

A most enjoyable program was presented by Mrs. Dawna Hilz, Bill Tompkins and Miss Patsy Freeman.

cousin of the groom. After the cutting of the wedding cake which had been given by the bride's paternal grandmother, the bridesmaids passed out individual packages to the guests.

Dancing followed to the music of the Raymond Canadians until midnight when lunch was served.

For her going away outfit Lynn chose a pale blue linen walking suit with white accessories. Her corsage of white orchids completed her ensemble. For their honeymoon the young couple flew to Los Angeles.

The happy couple are now making their home in Vulcan.

Friends of the Bert Kands will be sorry to learn that their young daughter, Marilyn is presently at the Children's hospital in Calgary undergoing treatment.

Some 20 members of the newly formed Jack and Jill club enjoyed a hay ride to the Bob Todd farm Friday evening. The young people, chaperoned by Rev. V. Cowell, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hughes and Mrs. Roberta Davis enjoyed a wiener roast following their happy ride.

Mrs. Ruth Northcott accompanied by her guests, Mrs. Gertrude McCubbin motored to Stettler on Thursday, where they visited at the Lloyd Iles' home. Later they journeyed to Edmonton, where Mrs. McCubbin left by plane for Prince Rupert, B.C., where she will visit with her son and his family.

George Traub of the Bank of Commerce staff has been transferred to the Camrose branch of the bank. Mrs. Traub and children will shortly join him at Camrose.

Weekend guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Perley was their son Bill who was en route to his new posting with the Hudson's Bay Company to Fort Smith, N.W.T. Bill spent last year at the RCAF base at Holberg, B.C.
